

BISHOP GRANBERY DIES SUDDENLY

Widely-Known Methodist Prelate Succumbs to Attack of Heart Failure.

FUNERAL HERE TO-MORROW

Bishop Hoss, of Baltimore Conference, Will Deliver the Oration.

Bishop John Granbery, of the Virginia Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, died suddenly yesterday morning at his home in Ashland. Though seventy-six years of age, and in infirm health, Bishop Granbery was not thought to be in immediately serious condition. He attended service at the Ashland Methodist Church on Sunday morning, and made the opening prayer at the service. He was thought to be in his usual health throughout the day. On Monday morning about 9 o'clock Bishop Granbery walked down-town and got his mail at the post-office, and spoke to a number of friends on the street. He was joined at the railway station by his son, Rev. J. C. Granbery, Jr., pastor of Ashbury Methodist Church, Manchester, Va., who had just come up from Richmond to spend the Easter holidays with his father. The father and son walked back to the bishop's residence, near Randolph-Macon College, and entered the library. Bishop Granbery stood by the open fire, looking over his letters, while young Mr. Granbery read the paper in the same room. Without warning the bishop fell forward on the hearth rug, dying immediately. A neighboring physician who was called in stated that death was due to heart failure.

Funeral Here To-Morrow.

The funeral of Bishop Granbery will take place from Centenary Methodist Church, in this city, to-morrow at 11:30 A. M. The plan of the family is to have the body of the bishop lie in state in the chapel of Randolph-Macon College to-day, with a student guard of honor. To-morrow morning the remains will be brought to Richmond by special train, the officials of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac having offered every possible facility. Besides the members of the family and the immediate friends from Ashland will be the active pall-bearers who have been selected from among the Ashland neighbors. The honorary pall-bearers are prominent laymen of the Richmond church service, and will meet the train at Elba on Wednesday morning and proceed immediately to Centenary Church. The church services will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Young, D. D., pastor at Centenary, assisted by Rev. Ernest Stever, pastor at Ashland, Bishop Hoss, of this Baltimore Conference, who is now in Staunton, will make the address. The music will be in charge of the Centenary choir, and the interment will be in Hollywood.

The pall-bearers will be: Honorary: Prof. R. E. Smith, Col. J. S. Buford, John C. Freeman, Somers Morton, H. Selton Taylor, C. H. Haver, C. W. Hardwick, J. P. Branch, B. J. Walker, P. P. Winston. Active: Dr. R. E. Blackwell, Dr. E. M. Jones, Dr. E. W. Bowen, Dr. W. E. Dodd, Dr. H. C. Hall, Dr. J. H. Nett, Dr. E. B. Easter, Dr. J. McClelland.

Action of Ministers.

A telegram announcing the death of Bishop Granbery was read to the Monday Conference of Methodist Ministers at their meeting yesterday, and the following resolutions were drawn up by a special committee:

"We, the Methodist ministers of Richmond, Manchester and vicinity, have heard with profound sorrow of the sudden death of our beloved Bishop Granbery, of Ashland. This comes as a distinct shock, and as an expression of our grief we offer the following:

"Resolved, first, That we as a church feel deeply a great loss in the Christian character, a holy man of God and the most worthy and beloved bishop and father in Israel, Bishop Granbery has endeared himself to us in an unusual degree.

"Resolved, second, That we extend to the bereaved son (a minister of this body) and the other members of the family our loving sympathy, and commend them to the Father of Mercies, whose grace is sufficient for every need. Through their tears may they, by the power of the risen Christ, see in the homeland beyond the happy reunion of the so recently severed between husband and wife, and that they be enabled to await with patience until the night is over—when they and all of us shall see again these precious waiting ones, loved long since and lost a while."

"Resolved, third, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes sent to the family, and published in the daily press and the Baltimore and Richmond Christian Advocate.

"HUGH J. PAYLOR, Secretary, "Among the Ministers," "M. S. COLONNA, Committee."

Sketch of His Career.

Bishop Granbery was born in Norfolk, Va., December 5, 1829. In 1844, when fifteen years of age, he was converted at a revival service, and shortly afterwards joined the Methodist Church. In 1848 he graduated from Randolph-Macon College, in the class with Colonel James B. Branch, Dr. John Herbert Claiborne, and other well-known Virginians.

In November of that year, he was

Tyler's
FIRST AND BROAD STS.

People Tell Us

It is quite a triumph for any one store to gather such a complete variety of hat styles, and all "new, live ones, too."

It makes hat-buying quite convenient when you can review all the new shapes and colors side by side, and be assured of finding the very hat you want at the price you want to pay.

Hats for every head—$1.50 to $5.00. Young's Hats, $3.00 and $4.00.

Young's Silk Hats, $5.00

admitted into the Virginia Conference. His first year in the ministry was spent in the Eastville Circuit, Virginia, and later he was pastor at Farmville.

For nearly two years he served as pastor of the Third Street Church, Lynchburg. In 1860 his health broke down and he was forced to discontinue the ministry for the time being. In 1864, however, he served the Loudoun circuit of churches, and was then two years as pastor at Randolph-Macon College. He served a year in Charlottesville, two years in Washington, D. C., and two years as chaplain of the University of Virginia. It was while chaplain of the University of Virginia, having charge of the bank property at nights and on Sundays.

The funeral arrangements have been made for the late Bishop Granbery. The funeral will take place from Centenary Methodist Church, in this city, to-morrow at 11:30 A. M. The plan of the family is to have the body of the bishop lie in state in the chapel of Randolph-Macon College to-day, with a student guard of honor. To-morrow morning the remains will be brought to Richmond by special train, the officials of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac having offered every possible facility.

During the winter of 1861-1862, he was constantly in camp cheering the despondent and preaching as often as opportunity allowed. The officers respected him highly, and the men loved him, for he was their counselor and sympathizing friend, mingling with them in their winter hardships. For "every good word and work" such was his regard for the soldier that, not satisfied with lingering in the rear in time of battle, he followed closely the line, ready to minister to the wounded and dying. While thus engaged at the battle of Frazier's Farm, he was severely wounded in the forehead, and was taken prisoner. By this wound he lost the use of one eye.

He was treated as a prisoner, having been mistaken for an officer of the line, on account of his forward position and his wound. When his true rank was made known he was confined nearly a time at Fort Warren, where the Hon. S. Teackle Wallis and other Southern sympathizers were imprisoned.

Returning to Virginia, he re-entered the service, and served until the end of the war.

Pastor in Petersburg.

A few weeks after the war closed Rev. Mr. Granbery became pastor of Market Street Church, Petersburg, where he remained until the fall of 1868. He was for four years at Centenary Church, Richmond, and for two years at Broad Street, Richmond. In September, 1875, he was elected professor of practical theology and acting professor of moral philosophy in Vanderbilt University, at Nashville, Tenn., which position he held for seven years, during which time a large number of young Methodists ministerial students, among others the Rev. W. J. Young, D. D., of Centenary Church, were in his classes.

The General Conference of 1882 elected him a bishop, which position he accepted after filled for many years.

Bishop Granbery was thrice married. His first wife, Miss Sarah Massey, to whom he was married in 1858, died a year later. His second wife was Miss Ella Winston, who died in 1882. His third wife has been dead only a few months.

Bishop Granbery was the author of several valuable contributions to theological thought. Among his best-known books are "The Bible Dictionary," "Twelve Sermons," "Experience the Crowning Evidence of the Christian Religion."

Leader in His Denomination.

Bishop Granbery was always a leader in movements for the good of the community to which he ministered, and for the best interests of the church he served. As a pastor, he endeavored himself to his flock by his gentle and kindly manner. He comforted the afflicted, and none were ever turned away who came to him in the time of their distress.

His sermons were always eloquent, but held down to the text in hand; no vague wanderings of generalization; no mere platitudes that puzzled everybody and wasted themselves in empty air waves. His words were those of sympathy, of comfort, drawn from the Scriptures of comfort.

The consequence of this was that Bishop Granbery was always selected to lead in any public event. He officiated at numerous unveilings and the layings of corner-stones. He was a constant attendant upon all Confederate reunions, being himself one of those who followed the colors in the stirring days of '61-'65. He was nowhere more popular or more in demand than in the ranks of the veterans.

Bishop Granbery had visited the mission fields of the Southern Methodist Church, making several trips to Brazil in the interests of missions in that country, where he had a married daughter living. Bishop Granbery was chairman of the board of trustees of Randolph-Macon College at the time of his death. He gave up the active work of the bishop nearly twenty years ago, since which time he has been preaching in various churches and aiding in other religious work. He had officiated at the dedication of a number of new churches within the past few months. He recently dedicated a church in North Carolina, and preached in Lexington, Va., a few days before his death.

OBITUARY.

Miss Lizzie Fox.
Miss Lizzie Fox died at her residence, No. 619 Hancock Street, Sunday morning, after a brief illness.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from her late residence.

Miss Lizzie Sarah Robins.
Miss Lizzie Sarah Robins died Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Robins, 2216 East Broad Street, aged seventy-six years.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the late residence.

George H. Hopkins.
Mr. George H. Hopkins died last night at 10:15 o'clock at his residence, No. 1900 East Broad Street.

Mr. Hopkins had an honorable record in the Confederate army. Before the war he taught in a school on Main Street, and following it he engaged in the tobacco business, being at one time the manager of one of the Richmond houses.

Twelve years he had been night watchman at the State Bank of Virginia, having charge of the bank property at nights and on Sundays.

The funeral arrangements have been made for the late Mr. Hopkins.

Earle E. Minor.
Earle E. Minor, the young son of J. B. and Annie E. Minor, died at the residence of his parents, No. 511 Randolph Street, about 10 o'clock last night, aged ten years.

The funeral will take place from Randolph Street Baptist Church this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the interment will be in Riverley.

Mrs. Emma W. Spindle.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Emma Witherspoon Spindle, wife of John Spindle, died this morning at 4:35 o'clock at her home, No. 112 Camp Avenue, in the fifty-seventh year of her age. Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Miss Solene Witherspoon Spindle, who is survived by a sister, Miss Mary Witherspoon, of Norfolk, and a brother and sister in Columbia, S. C. The deceased was a native of Columbia, to which place the remains will be forwarded to-morrow evening for funeral and interment. She had resided here for seven years.

Francis J. Terry.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPENCER, N. C., April 1.—Francis J. Terry, aged twenty-four, an employee on the Southern Railway at Spencer, died at a hospital in Salisbury last night, following an illness of only a few days, from typhoid fever. He leaves four brothers, a sister and a father, who live at Hillsboro, to which place the remains were sent.

Mrs. Margaret Kavanaugh.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Margaret Kavanaugh died last night from pneumonia, aged sixty-two years. She was one of the best known and loved women in the city. She is survived by four sons.

Miss Annie Crumpacker. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crumpacker, died last night from rheumatism, aged twenty-four years.

Ashton Peyton McCarty.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Ashton Peyton McCarty, son of the late Peyton McCarty, died yesterday at "Miss Sessie," the home of the Dickinsons, in Caroline county, of consumption, after a twenty-seven year illness. He had been confined for ten days ago, where he had been staying for his health. His widow, who was Miss Dickinson, with one child, three brothers and three sisters, survive. Interment in the Dickinson family burying-ground.

Mrs. Mary L. Hudson.
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Mary L. Hudson, widow of Addison A. Hudson, died suddenly this afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, Luther A. Wright, aged eighty-four years. She had been a member of the Baptist Church for fifty years. One daughter and four grandchildren survive her.

Ben Knighton.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Ben Knighton, a Confederate soldier, of Orange county, died a few days ago, aged sixty-five years. His wife and a number of children survive him.

Mrs. Huston Rife.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Huston Rife, formerly Miss Nannie Row, daughter of Captain John S. Row, of Orange county, died last week at her home in Buffalo, W. Va., of pneumonia, aged thirty-four years. She is survived by her husband, four children and a number of relatives.

Mrs. Mary Etta Weaver.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Mary Etta Weaver, wife of R. H. Weaver, of this city, died Thursday afternoon at a hospital, aged sixty-three years. Her husband and six children survive.

Richard Brookes.
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Richard Brookes, a well-known Confederate soldier, of Essex county, died Thursday afternoon at a hospital, aged seventy years. He had been married three times. His last wife and several children survive him.

Captain W. C. Pollock.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KINGSTON, Va., April 1.—Captain W. C. Pollock died this morning at a hospital, after a long illness, aged an illness of several months. He was fifty years of age, and leaves a widow and seven children. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Keyville cemetery, under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge of Keyville, Va. Brookes was a member of the army for several years, and was a conductor in the passenger service of the Southern Railway.

away who came to him in the time of their distress.

His sermons were always eloquent, but held down to the text in hand; no vague wanderings of generalization; no mere platitudes that puzzled everybody and wasted themselves in empty air waves. His words were those of sympathy, of comfort, drawn from the Scriptures of comfort.

The consequence of this was that Bishop Granbery was always selected to lead in any public event. He officiated at numerous unveilings and the layings of corner-stones. He was a constant attendant upon all Confederate reunions, being himself one of those who followed the colors in the stirring days of '61-'65. He was nowhere more popular or more in demand than in the ranks of the veterans.

Bishop Granbery had visited the mission fields of the Southern Methodist Church, making several trips to Brazil in the interests of missions in that country, where he had a married daughter living. Bishop Granbery was chairman of the board of trustees of Randolph-Macon College at the time of his death. He gave up the active work of the bishop nearly twenty years ago, since which time he has been preaching in various churches and aiding in other religious work. He had officiated at the dedication of a number of new churches within the past few months. He recently dedicated a church in North Carolina, and preached in Lexington, Va., a few days before his death.

OBITUARY.

Miss Lizzie Fox.
Miss Lizzie Fox died at her residence, No. 619 Hancock Street, Sunday morning, after a brief illness.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from her late residence.

Miss Lizzie Sarah Robins.
Miss Lizzie Sarah Robins died Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Robins, 2216 East Broad Street, aged seventy-six years.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the late residence.

George H. Hopkins.
Mr. George H. Hopkins died last night at 10:15 o'clock at his residence, No. 1900 East Broad Street.

Mr. Hopkins had an honorable record in the Confederate army. Before the war he taught in a school on Main Street, and following it he engaged in the tobacco business, being at one time the manager of one of the Richmond houses.

Twelve years he had been night watchman at the State Bank of Virginia, having charge of the bank property at nights and on Sundays.

The funeral arrangements have been made for the late Mr. Hopkins.

Earle E. Minor.
Earle E. Minor, the young son of J. B. and Annie E. Minor, died at the residence of his parents, No. 511 Randolph Street, about 10 o'clock last night, aged ten years.

The funeral will take place from Randolph Street Baptist Church this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the interment will be in Riverley.

Mrs. Emma W. Spindle.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Emma Witherspoon Spindle, wife of John Spindle, died this morning at 4:35 o'clock at her home, No. 112 Camp Avenue, in the fifty-seventh year of her age. Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Miss Solene Witherspoon Spindle, who is survived by a sister, Miss Mary Witherspoon, of Norfolk, and a brother and sister in Columbia, S. C. The deceased was a native of Columbia, to which place the remains will be forwarded to-morrow evening for funeral and interment. She had resided here for seven years.

Francis J. Terry.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPENCER, N. C., April 1.—Francis J. Terry, aged twenty-four, an employee on the Southern Railway at Spencer, died at a hospital in Salisbury last night, following an illness of only a few days, from typhoid fever. He leaves four brothers, a sister and a father, who live at Hillsboro, to which place the remains were sent.

Mrs. Margaret Kavanaugh.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Margaret Kavanaugh died last night from pneumonia, aged sixty-two years. She was one of the best known and loved women in the city. She is survived by four sons.

Miss Annie Crumpacker. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Crumpacker, died last night from rheumatism, aged twenty-four years.

Ashton Peyton McCarty.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Ashton Peyton McCarty, son of the late Peyton McCarty, died yesterday at "Miss Sessie," the home of the Dickinsons, in Caroline county, of consumption, after a twenty-seven year illness. He had been confined for ten days ago, where he had been staying for his health. His widow, who was Miss Dickinson, with one child, three brothers and three sisters, survive. Interment in the Dickinson family burying-ground.

Mrs. Mary L. Hudson.
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Mary L. Hudson, widow of Addison A. Hudson, died suddenly this afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, Luther A. Wright, aged eighty-four years. She had been a member of the Baptist Church for fifty years. One daughter and four grandchildren survive her.

Ben Knighton.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Ben Knighton, a Confederate soldier, of Orange county, died a few days ago, aged sixty-five years. His wife and a number of children survive him.

Mrs. Huston Rife.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Huston Rife, formerly Miss Nannie Row, daughter of Captain John S. Row, of Orange county, died last week at her home in Buffalo, W. Va., of pneumonia, aged thirty-four years. She is survived by her husband, four children and a number of relatives.

Mrs. Mary Etta Weaver.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Mrs. Mary Etta Weaver, wife of R. H. Weaver, of this city, died Thursday afternoon at a hospital, aged sixty-three years. Her husband and six children survive.

Richard Brookes.
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 1.—Richard Brookes, a well-known Confederate soldier, of Essex county, died Thursday afternoon at a hospital, aged seventy years. He had been married three times. His last wife and several children survive him.

Captain W. C. Pollock.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KINGSTON, Va., April 1.—Captain W. C. Pollock died this morning at a hospital, after a long illness, aged an illness of several months. He was fifty years of age, and leaves a widow and seven children. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Keyville cemetery, under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge of Keyville, Va. Brookes was a member of the army for several years, and was a conductor in the passenger service of the Southern Railway.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Alcohol not needed
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. We publish the formulae of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.